Suhl is a town with 42.000 inhabitants, the biggest town in the southern state of Thuringen with a historic background of many centuries. Situated in the middle of Germany, only one hour by car from the historic Wasserkuppe, the famous place of early flight tradition. Since the Middle Age the town of Suhl is famous due to the old tradition in the production of weapons which is continued up to today. Special attractions for tourists are the museum of weapons (Waffenmuseum), the Cineplex, one of the most modern cinemas, the Phaenomania, an active experience event, the vehicles museum (Fahrzeugmuseum) a visitor mine and museum (Besucherbergwerk), the zoological park (Tierpark) and the star observatory (Sternwarte). Not to forget the beautiful surrounding area of the Thueringer wood mountains.
