Subject: Cleveland 80" Playboy Senior - Renumbering the Construction Reports

Cleveland 80" Playboy Senior

May 3, 2017

I posted the Playboy Senior construction reports 1 through 27 before I realized on April 24, 2017 that I was building to a set plans that was not full size. The decision was made to start over with full size plans rebuilding everything previously built and have posted new reports 1 through 6 so far. However I think you will agree that it makes no sense to report on construction previously documented. So I have renumbered the new reports 1 through 6 to be a continuation 28 through 33 as shown below:

Old Numbers -> Report 1 through 27 and 1 through 6

Revised Numbers -> Report 1 through 33

There will be no posting on any new repeat construction, except to show the new finished item or component. Therefore, my next Playboy Senior construction report will be No. 34. Due to unresolved Outlook 2013 computer issues, from now on I will only post reports on the SAMTalk_Forum using my rcsam@outlook.com e-mail address and the Thunderbird e-mail program which seems to be the only combination that works.
